

Glin
ofimerick,
May 19th '28

Quincy, Ill. Soldiers' Home

Gentlemen

I am seeking some information, or trying to presume the death of my Grand Father John Fitzgerald, originally a native of Glin, ofimerick, who fought in the Civil war, was shot through the mouth, wounded in both legs, which rendered his speech defective, and caused him to move about on crutches he was last seen alive about 35 years ago, at Cortland, N. Y. where his daughter Mrs. M. Dillon resided, now deceased, later we learnt that he was an inmate of above Home, which he left, and was never heard of since. —
Could you tell me, what Company: